I Kings 21:1-29

SUBJECT: Naboth’s Vineyard
I Kings 21:1-29

NABOTH'S VINEYARD

In a vineyard of the palace of Jezreel, Ahab, king of Israel, went to view.

- How much, then, is this vineyard? May I purchase it from you? (1 Kings 21:5)

- A vineyard exchanged, your majesty. Will that suffice? (1 Kings 21:10)

- I will give you a better vineyard in Gadara, if you will give up this one. (1 Kings 21:13)

- What is this vineyard worth, in Gadara? (1 Kings 21:14)

- And then, once again, Naboth answered... (1 Kings 21:17)

- But what will you give me in return? I will sell you this vineyard. (1 Kings 21:19)

- I will give you the vineyard you desire if you will give me the vineyard of Ahab. (1 Kings 21:20)

- But what is that to me, to take your vineyard? (1 Kings 21:21)

- I will give you this vineyard and the vineyard of Ahab, if you will give me your house. (1 Kings 21:22)

- Then God warned Ahab about Naboth's vineyard. (1 Kings 21:23)

By the way, did you know that Naboth was a good farmer? (1 Kings 21:24)

When Ahab asked Naboth to buy the vineyard, he refused. (1 Kings 21:25)

And God gave Ahab all the land of the vineyard, as a sign... (1 Kings 21:26)

Not only did Ahab receive the vineyard, but he also received a royal inheritance. (1 Kings 21:27)
