The Journey From Mt. Sinai

Num. 10:1, 2 the silver trumpets } Israel rejoined

Num. 10:11-13 the march under the shadow of Sinai for about about months, long enough to see the seasons of the seasons.

What a change in the people! Arrived a fugitive, unorganized, slave community; left a mighty nation in battle array. Provided with a sacerdotal system to last for centuries; furnished with a law, laws which is a model for all civilized nations.

The very appearance, the carry indicated the numerous change. In the middle of the sacred tent, brooding cloud

Around it, twelve pillars of brass around them, 12 great tables, 3 on each side.
Center, national life. The tabernacle.

When moved they take up, priests through them
they give faith the spirit.

Num. 10:14-29 order the march Judah, Issachar, Zebulun
the leading nations of the tabernacle with six wagons, some of which are merari (Num. 7:1-9)

Reuben, Simeon, Dan
then the long line, Kohathites carry on their shoulders the sacred vessels, the sacred service
Ephraim, Manasse, Benjamin
Dan, Asher, Naphtali.

The Nobility of Moses

I. Numbers 11: 16-22, 24-29 ELIAB AND MROAO

Success the real secret is man's capacity.
of prodigal son, who came to possess position, wealth, respect, power in Moses for two years - plant house
- Leahy 3 million high three million
- the laws, government, then his

But still humble, simple.

The 70 elders to help his.

The baptism of the spirit (Acts 2:4)

For 66, only temporary

For 2, however, power continued

A man, jealous for love & more justice & law, equally character

are not only for the glory of God.

II. Numbers 12:1-15

Miriam's jealousy might of Aaron says that "Aurite" Zipporah, recently
came to Moses.
Miriam had to react
some, an outcry.

How easy to disguise jealousy beneath cloak of zeal
for the law? etc.

f. so many splinter Bostons: personal ambition.

How did Moses act? he was filled with Egyptian, fit.
fervent, independent, abash?
