Gal. 2:20 "not I, but Christ"
a "C" is a bent "J".

Lord, bend that proud and stiff neck "J"

Help me to bow the head and die

Beholding Him on Calvary
who bowed His head and died for me.

Oh, to be saved from myself,
dear God,

Oh, to be lost in Thee,

Oh that it might be no more "J"

But Christ that lives in me "

He humbled Himself to the manger
And even to Calvary's tree,
But I am so proud and unwilling
His humble disciple to be.

He yielded His will to the Father,
And chose to abide in the Light;
But I prefer wrestling to resting
And try by myself to be right.

Lord, break me, then cleanse me
and fill me
and keep me abiding in Thee,
That fellowship may be unbroken and Thy Name be hallowed in me.

A pious African X^o told a congregation that, as he was climbing the hill to the meeting, he heard steps behind him. He turned and saw a man carrying a very heavy load up the hill on his back. He was full of sympathy for him and spoke to him.
They he noticed that his hands were scarred, and he realized it was Jesus.
He said to him, "Lord, are you carrying the world's sins up the hill?" "No," said the Lord Jesus, "not the world's sins, just yours."

was it for sin that I have done
the ground upon the cross?
Amazing gift, grace rendered,
and not beyond degree.
