'Tis Heaven at Last

Christ will be the living splendor,

Christ the sun, yet mild and tender,

Praises to the Father we render,

Ah, 'tis Heaven at last.

Broken death's dread bands that bound us,

Life and victory gloriously surround us

Christ the King himself hath crowned us.

Ah, 'tis Heaven at last.

Jesus In Heaven

Oh, Christ, He is the fountain
The deep, sweet well of love.
The streams of earth I've tasted,
More deep still drink above.

There is no ocean of fulness
His mercy doth exceed,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

The bride eyes not her garment;
But her dear bridegroom's face.
I will not gaze at glory
But on my Lord's dear face.

Not at the crown he giveth
But on his pierced hand,
For the Lamb is all the glory
In Immanuel's land.
