

WRITES OF JUDGERS - address all in common PURPOSE FOR

III Paul had not preached at Rome. Acts 14:21; Rom 1:4-13 EPISTLE Farnest desire to do so. Acts 14:21; Rom 1:4-13 Unethical writers of the gospel given his by necessity from & give The is full of the same rather by the guidelines - to be saved must They have; more, circumstances

St. Basilian - Chs. turned away from a high point of
- passionate, heated up

Now - volume, less welcome, style, present his gospel
Rom. 1:16

a God righteousness to be obtained only by faith in &

IV Concerning the book

1. Some: a religious treatise written by a man with a rational, logical mind & a grasp of his ideas of doctrine Others: the founder document / a theological treatise

Others: the journal, mental history of the Apostle as he struggled his way from the old, Jewish viewpoint to the gospel

2. what Paul says: Gal. 1:11, 12; Rom. 7:16 by revelation = taught his by Jesus Christ of Gal. 1:11-12
Rom. 7:16

not just the product / a logical mind not a system of theology to be thought out not a system someone else taught him

Word of God, not man mind of man could not have invented it God had to reveal it

3. The founder document was written Very: no theological scholar ever sounded its depths yet simple: its humbled said can read, be able

The mark of inspiration, divine revelation: profoundly simply

The Outline

I Doctrinal chs 1-8
a) God - kind of righteousness man's true condition: lost, all would quickly lose God's atoning grace in 7 years, evening, just as we are justification of faith - an imputed righteousness

II Dispersational chs 9-11
God at ^{the problem?} Israel's unbelief.
Future restoration

III Eschatology chs 12-16

1. by your interpretation of the New Testament selection by golden rules human righteousness
 2. Paul's thesis: man's works are not enough the God-kind of righteousness is
"the just shall live by faith"
then Roman is anathema righteous which is (the law, works, not enough)
the God-kind of righteousness is
"the just shall live by faith"
 3. Not for lack of ethical codes } how the world would feel moral teaching } did Jesus come into the world.
of ethical teaching } would it replace the law order than to: "..." } works - we must pay But X₂ is not a system of ethics, creed, doctrine, X₂ is a law
X₂ is X
