True expectations: the treasure, the pearl, the church, the Kingdom of heaven but another application: how we are drawn to the truth: spiritual things that to us are precious. Following our Lord.

Matt. 7:6 pearl before swine!

The thought in the parable: dear to us, despised by others. A pearl of price, worth our whole lives & souls - but treasured by others.

not to be like - down the street, trying not to be, still my heart. (Mishkin's address)

To others. Lying in bed. Evening, a job, religious freedom, fighting for it. Hard, Church

Whittier has just into near the stay of a most possessor of a precious Biblical manuscript, a traveling Waldenian merchant who guardedly unrolls his treasure to noble lady, to whom he had been exhibiting his costly willo:

"O lady fair, I have got a gem, which gives better things Than the diamond found to the jewelled crown on the sly brow of kings;

A wonderful pearl of exceeding price, whose virtue shall not decay,

whose light shall be as a spell to thee and a blessing on thy way."

The cloud went off from the pilgrim's brow
as a small meagre book, unclad with gold or gem or coat, from his flowing robe he took.

"Here, lady fair, is the pearl of price, may it prove as much to thee.

May, keep thy gold, I ask it not, for the word of God is free."

As being truly the theophrastus from (someone's) pocket which cost at $400,000.00 an ounce! and the gemstone given him 10 or 15 cents or less in value.
So the merchant had a story of a man who gave a fine picture for a pearl.
