

TEXT: Lk. 15 <sup>11-32</sup> The Prodigal Son.

SUBJECT: ~~The Wasting Father; the Sinful Child.~~
Seven Similarities

GF

THE PRODIGAL SON.

EVANG.
Luke 15.

1. What Is God like?

- (1) God is like a Father - see who have known a loving Father. "Son, if you are need help, just call on dad."
  - (a) My dad, kissing my hand.
  - (b) When I went away to college - "Son, I wish I could help you. The Lord will. But I'll do all I can."
  - (c) Praying for me always - at my probation.

(2) The conversion of deacon Penman - God like a Father.

2. What Is the Sinner like?

- (1) He is like a boy, away from home, wanting his life.
  - (a) Old mother and dad Bennett, at Gumboro. Now she's gone on.

3. What Is Sin like?

Sin is like the water that consumed the last's substance.

- (a) The two brothers Cain & Abel.
- (b) The young twins - every boy away from God subject to this.

4. What Is the Love of God like?

- (1) Like the welcome home that never wears out.
  - (a) God loving always - the greater sinners, the greater love. "When sin did abound, then grace..."
(as the woman in Lk. 7)

(2) The last letter from mother - Carrie

(3) Welcome - me coming in at 4:00 o'clock.

The Stetsonville mother - welcome, but she has on the canvas of 200, the father.

5. What is Rejecting God like?

- (1) Like turning down your father.
  - (a) Old Ben Victor - his letter last week
- (2) The garden board.

6. What is Accepting God like?

- (1) Byron Scarborough father, sit the arm of his father

L.R. 15:11-24

SEVEN SIMILITUDES

1. What is GOD like?

The loving father.

(a) Conversion of Simon Barion, then magister. His son drowns - out to rescue brother of large family - father with him to the hill - fifty unit price - presents into hand of boy - boy of hill looking back - waves of the hand. Preacher speaking on God, our father, like that. Melted, yielded.

2. What is the SINNER like?

A prodigal son, who belongs home, but is out in world.

(a) Mother and Dad Bennett, Jonesboro. Home like in a picture. Path up hill, three gate with trees arching over. Cottage. Birth out. After dinner visit, at table, she breaking into tears. Son in oil field. Wayward. Prays for him.

3. What is SIN like?

The waste that consumed this lad's
substance - material, physical, spiritual.

Eats like the voracious cancer cell. Drains upon ideals, vision, virtues, character. Leaves a wreck.

4. What is REPENTANCE like?

"I will arise and go."

(a) BB Monie.

5. What is REJECTING God like?

How this lad refused the welcome of his father.
Forgiveness

L.R. 15:11-24

SEVEN SIMILITUDES

1. What is GOD like?

The loving father.
(a) Conversion of Simon Brown, then my uncle. His son drowns - out to rescue brother of large family - father with him to the hill - fifty unit piece - presses into hand of boy - boy of hill looking back - waves of the hand. Brother's quality in God, my father, like that. Melted, yielded.

2. What is the SINNER like?

A prodigal son, who belongs home, but is out in
world.

(a) Mother and Dad Bennett, Jonesboro. Home like in a picture. Fall my hill, three goats with teeth asking soon. Cotton. Birth out. After dinner visit, at table, she breaking into tears. Son in oil field. Wayward. Prays for him.

3. What is SIN like?

The waste that consumed this lad's
substance - material, physical, spiritual.

Eats like the voracious cancer cell. Drains upon ideals, vision, virtue, character. Leaves a wreck.

4. What is REPENTANCE like?

"I will arise and go."

(a) BB Monie.

5. What is REJECTING God like?

How this lad refused the welcome of his father.
Forgiveness

6. What is ACCEPTING God like?

Falling into the arms of his father.

(a) Byron Scarborough

7. What is HEAVEN like?

At home, joyous, happy.

(a) The old man testified. When a boy, thought heaven a place of much gold, pearl, stone, and a lot of people he didn't know. Mother died, father died, mother, little sister died, wife - now, heaven a place where mother, father are, baby is, wife, and my friends. And I shall be there soon.
How - gold, silver, gems, pearl.

clix
6/40

1940, January, in the revival meeting at Sweetwater, Texas, with J. M. Sibley.

Bob Morris.

Dinner & Spanish Gardens, road house on the Bardhead highway. To see him. In the the room - a bar, roadhouse scene. In the corner a group, one man openly making a woman. Small, fifties, country, back dance hall, all. Asked for him, in that corner. Told him who I was. We went to the back.

He a S. S. teacher in First Baptist Church of Hope, Arkansas. Taught "You Married Men" Bible Class. His wife a S. S. teacher in same church. Out there in the West - last hard drought into Calif. (Bill business). Divorced. Married again - divorce for. Alone. A young man, broken, miserably unhappy.
I spoke to him about the prodigal son, living with the hog, eating their food.
"Yes, that he - in the pig pen, away from God." "Willing to get rid of the pig?"
"Yes" "To church?" "Yes." And he came, but I left (Sunday night he came) Monday AM.

What can I do for him? a father and son to show.
What can I do for him? His son has been sentenced to a year's imprisonment. I wish I could take his year's sentence to lay his year off from the fault, the year is his year, some from the distance it will never come directly to him.

of David, "Absalom!" I am sure so earnest redeem others, is it incredible that you will do for his own?

---

When the prodigal son came to himself he said—well, what did he say? He might have said: "I am not to blame for this. There is no living at home with that brother of mine." But he didn't say that. He might have said: "It isn't my fault that I am here, penniless. I had an ancestor who was a gay dog. I am not to blame; charge it to hereditary influence." But he didn't say that. He might have said: "Oh well, this thing isn't so bad after all. I have had my little fling. It's part of my education." But he didn't say that. What he did say was: "I have sinned. I am no more worthy to be called the son of my father. I am going back home and ask his forgiveness." And he went. That is repentance.

Lk. 15: 11-24

The Prodigal Son.

The message built around three alliterated words.

I. WEARY.

1. Of his father's house and of his father's righteous life.

Did not say: "I have been turning over a great problem in my mind. I have found that life is a responsibility, a discipline. I have been born, I have lived under circumstances of conspicuous advantage, yet I think it right to go out as so something for my own bread, to win my own position, establish my own title, to be treated, received as a man."

What he did say (in effect): "I want to be gone, to be free. I am a youth of fortune and the stability would be calling. This is what is mine."

He was bored to death with the colorless life at home.

Couldn't rest without somebody saying grace at the table.
"go to bed" "remembering him to say his prayers."
"set things a-walk" "we without church, S.S. & V.O.M."
"stay out at night without a refinement from parents."

He craves freedom without restraint
liberty without law

Life becomes why be held in intolerable bonds, stale conventions, why red blood dancing in his veins? Titillations of the flesh beckoned him to an even more pleasurable life.

"Father, give me."

Craves independence through a gift! This is the essential absurdity in our attempt to do without God. We can only seemingly receive the essence of it by misusing this gift.

"Not many days after" The one who wishes to enjoy worldly pleasures without respect to God is obliged to breathe God out of his thoughts as soon and as completely as possible.

"Too far gone... far country" The further away, sweeter, larger liberty. Far as possible from habit restraints. Now his is unfeigned joy. Out yonder, no more reach father's house.

Lk. 15: 11-24

The Prodigal Son.

The message built around three alliterated words.

I. WEARY.

1. Of his father's house and of his father's righteous life.

Did not say: "I have been turning over a great problem in my mind. I have found that life is a responsibility, a discipline. I have been born, I have lived under circumstances of conspicuous advantage, yet I think it right to go out as do something for my own bread, to win my own position, establish my own title, to be treated, received as a man."

What he did say (in effect): "I want to be gone, to be free. I am a youth of fortune and the stability would be calling. This is what is mine."

He was bored to death with the colorless life at home.

Couldn't rest without somebody saying grace at the table.
"go to bed" "remembering him to say his prayers."
"get through" "and we without church, S.S. or even
"stay out at night without a refinement from parents."

He craves freedom without restraint
liberty without law

Life becomes why be held in intolerable bonds, stale conventions, why red blood dancing in his veins? Titillations of the flesh beckoned him to an even more pleasurable life.

"Father, give me."

Craves independence through a gift! This is the essential absurdity in our attempt to do without God. We can only seemingly receive the essence of it by misusing this gift.

"Not many days after" The one who wishes to enjoy worldly pleasures without respect to God is obliged to breathe God out of his thoughts as soon and as completely as possible.

"Too far gone... far country" The further away, sweeter, larger liberty. Far as possible from habit restraints. Now his is unfeigned joy. Out yonder, no more reach father's house.

2. Of sin and the far country.

Never knew what meanness was until went away from God.

"spent all" All that he possessed admitted of being spent.
He had nothing that would not be spent. All that he had was outside him. <sup>How different the spiritual man. One that faith was</sup> ~~all~~ attested description: "by inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, ~~and~~ fading not away."

"a mighty famine."

Always crisis - always famine in the land of forgetfulness, God.

"began to be in want" A man of experience, here of grace,
when he was set of the physician with his call.

"felt as if" dear parents too ready to gratify looked around as if might see faces of father, mother - but nothing but strangers, desolation. Called out - the mocking of the assurance him.

"no more gave unto him."

his friends of money days, gone.

II. WILL.

Self-will

Other two parables - lost like a sheep, straying, nibbling do partially explain the terrible fact that we go away from God. But my partial explanation. Drimmer treats his underneath. Below the, ignorance, in adventure, error, imprisonment, hardship, spirit order, lies the terrible fact that we cross to us.
The rising up of a rebellious will against God. Desires separation.

of Sociological explanation in the discipline: only practical Father made no attempt to hold him. Home not come to a boy of alien will. Church, prayer meeting, S.S., heaven.... of Dr. Howard writes of and his son Dan.

Lost to father

Left his father's house to be free. Unfettered. Unhindered.
But look!

"joins himself to us: you -- sent him" whom his freedom? Now driven to find swine - a task where with shame only a Jew could feel. The gullies word of hard task-master.

Free to live in pleasure to delight to fantasize to irritate God. Love

The hard task-master - the word
"no man goes with him"
Singles his dog & runs him away with one hand.

The gentle drunkard - throws out the bread of the wrong depend - "a bag of gold and a handful of bars."

conversion repentance the will to 'em.

"Come to himself?"
thou sets himself. Bewick himself. All and is in sanity insanity to try to be free from God, shake off God, independence.
Self-will not on true selves. For-unity not our house.

His will to his father. "as one of thy hired servants" what before service of, now job is heavy Only way to get it back. Give it to the father strong.

III WELCOME.

No love for the father could keep him from going away. Filled love had died. Off to the far country.

But paternal love, yearning, lives in the father.

"his father saw him"
recognize even in rags

knew the swing of the step
" & lines of the body every feature treasured in memory wrote on grayed nose

"father ran"

when old love is right, possibly his resolution might fail him, oozed out his fingers' ends & had to march up alone, through gauntlet of servants. Father's seeing eye, meeting the shame-faced slow-stopping boy.

"kissed him" before any confession.

No word of sharp rebuke, no making men of a sufficient sense of guilt, no requirement of probation, no sentence to quarantine until the disease of his cure. Only fulness of father's love.

Notes:

Rebuke. Emblem of conviction. All marks of the far country erased of her.

Reign. Honor, position.

Front. Into family. Illness went banished. of love in eye. "shod ..."

Front. Haven keeping holiday.

For the love of God is broader than the measure of man's mind and the heart of the returned is most wonderfully kind.

(9) ~~W. C. Carey~~: "A poor, mis-moth, helpless woman, on thy kind as we, 'fall."

9/68 P
10/51

LA. 15: 11-24

THE PRODIGAL SON

I. NEARY.

1. Of his father house. Of goodness, righteousness.
Born to death with waste life at home. Christ, S.S., B.V.P.U., grace, prayer.

He craved freedom without restraints. Life beloved. Liberty without law. Why be held in intolerable bonds, stale conventions, when red blood dancing in his veins? Titillation? the flesh

"Father, give me..." Craved independence, thought a gift! This the mental absurdity in an attempt to do without God. He can only seemingly succeed to do it by misusing the gifts.

"Not many days" - the man who wishes to enjoy worldly good without homage to God is obliged, in self-defense, to hustle God out of his thoughts as soon and as completely as possible.

"took his journey... far country" - as far as possible from the old hated restraints. Now he could live in unbridled joy; no wild oats, no never reach father's home.

"and a mighty famine" Such a "merry" life is sure to be "short." Always famine in the land of paganism, god. change of heart. and more

2. Of sin and the far-country.

Godless world a headach-matter. Unclean animals fit companions for the rest of sin.

At the young woman, wife of sin, coming down to fruit. belongs to another class. At father's mansion every with another woman - girl not fruit - she to see husband going out. But wrong - wanting to come back.

269 constant excitement couldn't do it and without

II. Will.

Self-will

Other two parables - nibbling away, lost from neglect - do partially explain the terrible fact that we go away from God. But only partial explanation. Sinners truth makes like them. Below the sign, man's weakness, even heredity, dominates & towards the individual choice is not lost. The man knows - knows he employs other & cause - that he never will have done that thing unless he had chosen to do it.

Not following inclination like a wild sheep.
"Nothing away in respect to death like the lost shepherd
But the sting of a rebellious will that drives separation.

Father made no attempt to lure him. How could he? How would not be born to a boy of alien will. Not Christ, S.S. B.V.M. any longer.

Set to task-master

"sent him" <sup>no discipline ourselves or somebody else will do it for us.</sup> Where his vaunted freedom? Now driven to free man - a task master with slave only a few coins left. Whipped along & promised by every ragged, moody, appetite. Freedom to smoke... a slave.
" " drink... " Near Kopy. Man.
" " fornicate... " " enough.
" " for pleasure... " " "

Careless of reputation or the will to God

"Came to himself" - then not himself, beside himself, wisdom to try to be free from God, shake off God, win at independence. Self will not our true selves. For country not our home. Impose remembered father's prayers; church; songs; what God he had arranged of.
"I will arise and go." I will say... a servant. "I will & the Father. "I will..."

Welcome.

No love for the father crowd keep him, went away, fabled love did out. But paternal love, grasping, based on the father.
"Father saw him, recognized him in song. Made the sun, the sky, the body, every part of him, to measure his goodness, weight, love, prayer and father ran..." when old love is right, possibly his resolution might fail him, oozed out his fingers, with a dash to march up above, through quantities of sinners. Father's seeing eye, eager meeting the slave, hand, slow-stepping way.

...kissed him. His welcome began my welcome.
No word of sharp rebuke, no making sure of a sufficient sense of guilt, no requirement of protection, no sentence to quarantine until the disease of sin cured. Only fulness of father's love.

Notes -

- Robt - weakness of character. All marks of the fox country raised, covered.
- Paul - token of wealth, love, position. Delegated authority. So thorough & just.
- Fate - into family. Slaves went hangable. Had which preparation of your... preparation for journey of it
- Fate - became keeping along.

Where his friends in the fox country? "No more your next kin."
Sucked him dry, threw him as far as pitch and road.

But the father.

For the love of God is broader
Than the measures of man's mind,
And the heart of the eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
- F.M. FABER "Hymn"

(Wm Carey) gave: "A poor, miserable, helpless woman, on thy last evening, fall."

Forney
Munich
Oct 13, '43

"came to mind" all day is working with a rubber

Had to that his more good, again of former, as numbers, as the by 7 to with 1/2 of Gray Hunt.

Thank you for proving it. Really, please to out in front.

(*) Leg angled - that's out both legs, but on leg soon

By Powell: the legs dead, not.