In his book, "Masters of Deceit"

J. Edgar Hoover says of Tennis:

"The skill of Tennis simply cannot be overestimated. He introduced into human relations a new dimension of evil and depravity not surpassed by Genghis Khan or Attila the Hun."

This is man who said not matter of 3/4 of human race destroyed, if remaining 1/4 is less so with.

Daniel Webster.

"It would be but a trifle if the walls of yonder Capitol were to fall, if its lofty pillars were to crumble. All these can be re-built. But who shall re-construct the fabric of demolished government?

Who shall

rear again the well-proportioned column?

Constitutional liberty? Who shall frame together the skillful architecture which unites national sovereignty with states rights, individual security and public prosperity? "

Isiah Holland wrote this prayer during the Civil war:

God give us men, a time like this demands

Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands.

Men whom the lusts of Office doe not kill,

Men whom the spoils of Office cannot buy,

Men who possess opinions and a will,

Men who have honor, men who will not lie.
