

Series 35-42

SUBJECT: The School of Sorrows

D
W
6/89

D 7/56
GF

4. Suffering through the sin of his children.
The dark story of Simon and Levi Dec. 34: 1-31
Now Reuben 35: 22 and Judah Dec. 28
lays out length in - last, TAMAR

5. Loved to see dissension, had not read his house, 37.
The side brother envious, had his young brother, Joseph. (37: 3, 4) the son of the beloved Rachel, the child of his other wife. Joseph had made a coat of gold for the young man - the coat of many colors, purple, the color the coat in blood - referred to the "purple" 37: 31-35

6. The terrible famine Dec. 42
Down in Egypt, in all ages the glory of the world.
After an agonizing struggle, returns, but Joseph not with them.
To get his son, Joseph for the entering famine gold must be sold as was, his right hand, the last into how not his reward in Rachel's death.
His agonizing cry: 42: 36 "all the things on earth are!" GEN 44: 19

7. The young man that life was closing, strength fading - 47: 9 "I have not attained."

I. W. are not to judge by appearances

42:36 "all these things are against me"

a great mistake.

Joseph also - gov. of Egypt sent them to preserve their lives.
Solomon also - he showed his dream, compelling his brethren to return to the presence of the all-wise gov. of Egypt.

Joseph in words came to his death.

all things were made together for good to him, if not that he was not sent to the great while my will shall be done, even though I put forth in the end.

II. God has a purpose in all our sorrows.

50:20 "God meant it unto good."

~~of his will it shall be done~~

III. Nothing can separate us from the love of God.

48:13, 16

The shepherd has his not realizing it at his time, but cannot see it in his death bed.

I. W. are not to judge by appearances
42:36 "all these things are against me"

a great mistake.
Joseph's chief - gov. of Egypt sent them to preserve their lives.
Simeon also - he showed his dream, compelling his brethren to return to the presence of the all-wise gov. of Egypt.
Joseph's words were laid softly.
all things were made together for good to him, if not that he would not wait for the good until he would have a better, more than just good in the end.

II. God has a purpose in all our sorrows.

50:20 "God meant it unto good."
of his sorrows not sent for us

III. Nothing can separate us from the love of God.

48:13, 16 The shepherd has his rod ready at his side, but cannot use it on his faithful ones.

4. Suffering through the sin of his children.
The dark story of Simon and Levi 34:1-51
Now Reuben 35:22 and Judah 38:28
Lays out lengths in Levi, TAMAR

5. Loved to see dissonance, but not read his home. 37.
The side brother Levi, had his young brother, Joseph. (37:3, 24)
The son of the beloved Rachel, the child of his wife. Joseph gradually avoids fratricide - the word of many colors, purple, the robe
the coat in blood - a sign of @ computer? 37:31-35

6. The terrible famine Gen. 42
Down in Egypt, in all ages the granary of the world.
After an agonizing suspense, returns, but Simon not with them.
To get his own bread for the winter famine Jacob must risk as son, his right hand, the last wife does not die as usual in Rachel's death.
His agonizing cry: 42:36 'all the things are against me!' GEN 42:36

7. The young sense that life was closing, strength
fading - 47:9 'I have not attained.'

I. W. are not to judge by appearances
42:36 "all these things are against me"

a great mistake.

~~Joseph~~ Joseph - gov. of Egypt, sent them to preserve their lives.
Simeon - the second kind of straw, compelling his brethren to return to the presence of the strange gov. of Egypt.

Joseph - words were said softly.

all things were made together for good to him, if not that he would not end to the great while he will drink a little, even though feet feet in the sand.

II. God has a purpose in all our seasons.

50:20 "God meant it unto good."
~~of his will: it is not his purpose~~

III. Nothing can separate us from the love of God.

41:13, 16 The shepherd of his flock.
not really it at his time, but meant
as it is his duty to do.