:19, 22 followed unto death.

The last scene - Peter following unto death.

(a) A British captain of a ship receives a wireless message that a tanker was wrecked by a fire steam off Brittany:
his ship orders to the rescue. The man pretends: "The storm too fierce, the waves too high. We would never come back alive." The Captain replies: "Our orders never said anything about coming back. We don't have to come back. The orders say, "Go to the rescue."
We don't have to live, to succeed, to prosper, to abound. Our orders -

Rev. 2:10 "be thou faithful unto death..."
presume to be saved? no: "even if it cost your life!"

I said, "Let me walk in the field"
He said, "No, walk in the town"
I said, "There are no flowers there"
He said, "No flowers but a cross"

I pleaded for time to be given
He said, "Is it hard to decide?"
It will not seem so hard in heaven
To have followed the steps of thy Guide.

Then into his hand went mine,
And into my heart came his,
And I walk on a light divine,
The path that I feared to see.
