James Russell Lowell

When I was a beggerly boy
And lived in a cellar damp,
I had not a friend nor a toy,
But I had Aladdin's lamp.

When I could not sleep for cold
I had fire enough in my brain,
And builded with roofs of gold
My beautiful castle in Spain.

Since then I have toiled day & night,
I have money & power good store,
But I'd give all my lamps & silver
For the one that is mine no more.

Tale, fortune, whatever you choose,
You gave, and may snatch again,
I have nothing 'twould pain me to lose
For I own no more castle in Spain.
