

Prov. 11:70

SUBJECT: Soul winning

D 1174

GP

Nov 11:30

THE SOUL-WINNER

THE TEXT:

① "The fruit of the right, a tree of life"
John 1:9 the believing fruit, soul saving. Very shadowy ^{comfort} ^{rest}
Ps. 22:2 fruit, healing

② "He that is wise will hear, and will increase his learning."
amen's Pent Vans. Andrew parallels in part; he is a man - and Draws them - like the boy, but at hand, all eyes

- just by being with him

- of the man. Not some, make feel that on down
rightly silent to remember pen right play as a baby, and feels out by accident, most, as was covered to what could. - no flourish, focus children come out, as fast, more to cry

In the 13, just by being with him, draws, & then by the spirit (will). Animal, built child, ...

I Implied in the text
Souls need nurturing, care or love.

(1) Father, "Play for a boy"
father, no, "not play" ...

One use of the word, "win"

- (1) Loss of manly. winning the girls hand, heart
- (2) military. " " battle
- (3) Legal " " law suit
- (4) Good fortune " " prize
- (5) All else " " game.

Two things in the group

1. Loss of manly. Cannot be driven, coerced.
the body can
the soul, heart is free

the reason the gospel must be presented beautifully, attractively
to the children's sense, fascinate, draw, catch
to the senses of the child, music, pictures
to the depth of the mind. words not too highly unbecome, persuasive, simple.

2. Skill in winning dedication, strategy, play, love, ...

Monday 11:30
 The fruit of the Spirit is a tree of life. The life of the Father is the life of the Son and the life of the Holy Spirit. They are all one and all together. (John 1:1-3)
 They are all one and all together. (John 1:1-3)
 They are all one and all together. (John 1:1-3)

I. The primary meaning of the text: The main point, the text, because he is the Son of God, the very substance of the Father, not just like him, but the same.

The Father is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and all together. (John 1:1-3)
 The Father is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and
 all together. (John 1:1-3)
 The Father is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and
 all together. (John 1:1-3)

The Father is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and
 all together. (John 1:1-3)
 The Father is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and
 all together. (John 1:1-3)

II. The Christian's work should be done not done there.
 Soul cannot be divided. We are one body, one spirit, one mind, one will. (1 Cor 12:13)
 The body can be divided, but the spirit, mind, will, are not.

The members remain separate, but they are one. The head is one, the spirit is one, the will is one. (1 Cor 12:13)
 The members remain separate, but they are one. The head is one, the spirit is one, the will is one. (1 Cor 12:13)

The glory of Christ is a glorious name. The name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. (John 1:1-3)
 The glory of Christ is a glorious name. The name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. (John 1:1-3)

That is the reason the gospel of Christ, in spite of opposition, should be preached everywhere. (1 Cor 12:13)
 - The Holy Spirit is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and
 all together. (John 1:1-3)
 - The Holy Spirit is the source of all life, and the Son is the source of all life. The Holy Spirit is the source of all life. They are all one and
 all together. (John 1:1-3)

Soul-saving By Proxy

"Abouts all the church is doing is making 'speaking-tourist' resources," says a recent writer who illustrates her point by telling the story of a ship that foundered on the rocks off the coast of England. Within two or three hundred yards away was a life-saving station - but the ship went down and all aboard were lost.

There was an investigation and the captain of the life-saving crew was asked on the stand if he had tried to rescue the passengers of the ship. He declared that he had.

They asked: "Did you endeavor to launch a boat to get to the ship or fetch the people off?" He replied "no; it wasn't possible. The net was too high. We didn't try it."

They asked: "While you stood a line and endeavor to create a breeches buoy to fetch the people off the ship?" The captain said: "no; we felt it was too far; we didn't try."