Let Us Be Kind 25.2.28

The way is long and lonely, And human hearts are asking for this blessing only that we be kind.

We cannot know the grief that men may borrow,
We cannot see the souls storm-swept by sorrow,
But love can shine upon the way today, tomorrow -
If we are kind.

This is a wealth that has no measure, this is of heaven and earth the highest treasure -

that we are kind.

A tender word, a smile of love in meeting, A song of hope and victory to those retreating,

A glimpse of God and brotherhood while life is fleeting -

Let us be kind.

the sunset tintz will now be of the West, too late the flowers are laid then on the quiet breast.

when the angel guides have sought and found us, their hands shall link the broken ties of earth that bound us, and heavy as home shall brighten all around us.

Because we were kind.

We learn as the years toll maward
And we leave the past behind, That much we had counted sorrow
But prove that God is kind.

That many a flower we'd longed for
Had a hidden thorn of pain,
And many a rugged bypath Led to fields of ripened grain.
