

John 11:35

4
2
2

THE TEARS OR JESUS

SUBJECT: Our Lord Jesus
His Tears

D
2/88

Pro - Easter

4/81

GP

John 11:35

4
2
2

THE TEARS OR JESUS

SUBJECT: Our Lord Jesus
His Tears

D
2/88

Pro - Easter

4/18/1

GP

John 11:35

4
2
2

THE TEARS OR JESUS

SUBJECT: Our Lord Jesus
His Tears

D
2/88

Pro - Easter

4/81

GP

HAVE YOU CRIED?

I wept for my child who was fevered and ill.

I fled, "Blessed God, surely her needs"

But I'm humbled in shame
as I call on His name.
How long since I've wept
for a soul?

I wept for my mother now
gone from the world;
Though she's with the Savior,
I am told.

Then from somewhere above
Jesus questioned us low,
"How long since I've wept
for a soul?"

I weep for the goals I had hoped to achieve;
For the failures of life's gain
and gold.

But before you condemn,
Let me ask you, my friend,
"How long since you've wept
for a soul?"

I. Tears of Sympathy John 11:35 a quiet
 Reveals so much about our Lord

(a) Little girl's mother. "He just had to see my child so sad. He was died. Why? " what did you say to her? " I did not say anything. " you just being by her side as usual, too."
 (b) The friend's fall, little girl. mother's words. "My little, crossbreed.."

of our Lord - not seem to cry in the face, but a whole sorrowful, but now in shadows, not broken, no movement
 - I explain you to your language, his resignation, because it's only 10 cars
 just passing see
 Isaac's car, outside, family
 Mark, Helman, etc.

2:16-19
 4:13,16
 7:25

II. Tears to the Feet Lk. 12:41 a lament
 (a) News of Jesus' death, not a cry, but a deep, long cry of grief

(b) Mary's to Jesus' feet, "all is well, my heart made it impossible to look you in the face, the Father, only to be close at once with you & heart."

(c) Mary's "How is it with you?"
 (d) Mary's "How is it with you?"
 (e) Mary's "How is it with you?"

III. Tears of Abandonment Luke 22:7 on "giving up" a boy's father, to reveal & understand
 Isa. 53:10 "do not know..."

(a) Mary's spiritual "let me go, when they carried you?
 the sound of your heart
 oh, loneliness, it makes me to tremble..."

The meaning of our death to God,
 (a) by Jesus, long abandoned, my God, not die?
 I had an experience like that.

Bas-Esther
 9/4/81

John 11:35

Our Lord Jesus: HIS TEARS

- 1. "He is like yourself"
 - Jan. 1:12 "It is really to you..."
 - Jn. 9:1 "oh, but I had never noticed..."
- Never revealed, in smile, laugh. But that he weeps
- Jn 11:35
Jh. 12:41
Hb. 7:7

- 2. A sign of weakness?
 - (a) Not a boy, between Jesus, Jesus down, who weeps...
 - (b) Big, like M. Callan & S. (missed), center of all that, his
- truth before that, nearly, applying to tears.

- 3. What cries?
 - Simon Peter, denying... Matt 26:75
 - Ephraim elders, Psal Ec 20:36-38

(a) mother, of compassion
 (b) Father, Son, I feel, that more for you "Jesus"

- The mother that
- + Grieved -
 - + Mourned -
 - + Sorrowed -
 - + Wept -
 - + Lamented -
 - + Mourning -

What is this?

a dramatized play?

Who the Agamemnon of Aeschylus?

- Shakespeare's Hamlet's uncle
- Eugene O'Neill's story "Lust for Life"?

Am I correct to say?

The greatest drama of Greek antiquity?

When Lady Macbeth is present in the play?

a dagger, a father

all the Shakespeare's "Othello" and "Lear"?

no this is about the first act and the first scene? But it is not?

- (1) Macbeth - Macbeth's wife
- (2) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (3) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (4) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (5) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (6) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (7) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (8) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (9) Macbeth - a letter messenger
- (10) Macbeth - a letter messenger

Macbeth's wife is dead

HAVE YOU WEPT?

I ^{WEPT} weep for my child who ^{WAS} is fevered and ill,
I plead, "Blessed Lord, make her whole,"
But I'm humbled in shame
As I call on His Name
How long since I've wept for a soul?

I wept for my ^{MOTHER} loved ones now gone from the world,
Though ^{SHE'S} they're with the Saviour, I'm told,
Then from somewhere above
Jesus questions in love,
"How long since you've wept for a soul?"

I weep for the ^{GOALS I HAD HOPED TO ACHIEVE} moments of pleasure I've missed,
For the ^{FAILURE} lack of life's gain and ~~its~~ gold,
But before you condemn,
Let me ask you, my friend,
How long since you've wept for a soul?