Judges 3:7-31

THE TERRIBLE WEEK

3:31 SHAMGAR.

A humble farmer of So. Palestine, his only weapon the implement of his daily toil, his battle field a country road.

Following his plow and oxen, carrying in his hand the rattle of-iron (long pole with iron-pointed end), he suddenly found himself surrounded by a band of Philistines, the procurers of an invasion of the land. They laid off-iron in a formidable weapon, he suddenly changed his form, as they fell before his fire & attack, he pursued them with such relentless fury, before day was over, 600 of them lay dead around him.

(a) Clyde felt Eldred Henry. Bully's. referring to Phil. 2:3-4
"and he who determined himself."
We can imagine the regard of those who sought God down to the Philistines. If we were like this, what an army of them? stayed a greater invasion. And that for hundreds of years. He and Samson. Philistines not aggression again until days of Saul. Shamgar not like Sidon - but prevented a greater evil.

A man standing in the ordinary path, if not need to mount a pedestal, to place in some illustrious position. Just standing where the feet of a hero from the army. Just that the weapons not lay next to hand.
