

II Samuel²⁴ - 25

SUBJECT: ⁷ That which doth cost me nothing?

(GP)

The generosity of Achanak the Jebusite. a man allowed to live in the midst of Israel. The king abundant opportunity to take advantage of the generosity of Achanak, his being a stranger, allowed to live unmolested. But refused.

1. Immediately, a quiet demand for the king.
The thought merely expressed commends itself to every conscience.
Rises immediately to a religious principle.
For my God - what? what is worth less? left over?
remnants?

2. It pleased the Lord.

I Chron. 21:26 "he removed him from heaven by fire"
God stopped the plague.

So Jesus Mt. 12:41-44 from window, two miles
14:1-9 elevated by, distant of Jerusalem

The generosity of Achanak the Jebusite. A stranger allowed to live in the midst of Israel. The king abundant opportunity to take advantage of the generosity of Achanak, his being a stranger, allowed to live unmolested. But regard,

1. Immediately, a general admiration for the king. The thought merely expressed commends itself to every conscience. Rise immediately to a religious principle. For my God - what? what is worth less? left over? unwaited?

2. It pleased the Lord.

I Chron. 21:26 "he assumed him from heaven by fire"
God stayed the plague.

So Jesus Mt. 12:41-44 from window, two miles
14:1-9 absolute by, instant of appearance

1. The moving example of giving at a cost
(a) Sage Park Baptist Church: gas bill, 50.00, telephone bill 20.00
: D.A.'s 45.00 No bus fare. Walk, no lunch.

2. Our only answer to the needs of the world
Col. 1: 24 what means? a la being in atonement, Y?
(a) Foreign mission opportunities

3. Our only ultimate peace of heart
(a) Chicago man
(b) Roman.