But tomorrow is too late

1. It destroyed <sup>Hill</sup> his life, soul
The convenient reason never came. It never does
The reply all at it took to destroy his life in that frame all that is now false. Or not?

(1) Duffing into steep resistance
(a) from "the secret"?

(2) Satan's smartest device enough, sufficient, all-adequate nothing else needed

(a) As in Milton's Paradise Lost, the assembled council in Hell
"How shall we do to damn the lives, souls; man?"
One said: "No but." "Satan, yield. But the book remains" his soul, "no but." "with all good."

Second ? : "with all in spirit and, that's your, etc.
But still the best seller. More talk about it, may not it?"

Third ? : "you do as you, Mr. Man here again, a man mental life as ~~the~~?" "Hill, man, but my true mission is, draw man to himself."

Fourth ? : "I know it. Admit it all. Not, Bill, for just relief, - no Jung, tense & plenty not sound but tomorrow, wait! It works."

IT DESTROYS US
This word <sup>US</sup> ~~leave~~, satanic pervasion, really universally membership of Baptists elsewhere: "wait (time) 2 year."
children "wait till old?"
quilt "wait till good times past?"
at end of year X3 man, & get X2 by.
man, how, common word: "now to boy, response..."
and of, "wait till I left, and, Catholicism experience"

then too late, mind your of old man Huffer, 70, too late? explain. Did there.
Noah - let set & open the door? And shut the door
Foolish wife - a - day . . . .
John speak: "My spirit shall not always strive . . .
: the old shall with age to 12-3 . . .
: Even find no place for repent, the world"

DESTROY WHATEVER OPPORTUNITY
HOPE WE MIGHT ASK OF SERVING GOD
I finally received as it - response at end, life - have failed, lost the job.
Offer a shell, a head, a remainder to me?
at Bitterly man
by all on whole.
Recalling and, after belated
at all. Too late, too late.

God say now - Ma. 5:6
If La. 6:1, 2

There's a man shirks by with a leeching gait
no joy, no hope, no star and he drifts from the path his fellow men
to wherever the other rocks are.

The song of his youth is sweet for aye
He name but he can say.
He drifts with the tide and wherever wind blows and nobody knows where the derelict goes.

Acts 24:25

Tomorrow is Too Late

The scene is that palace.

The Roman judges and procurator, and his guests.
The prisoner Paul, loaded with chains.

Yet it is Felix who trembles. Has an army, but he is afraid.
Great position, ... trembles.

God's appeal through the judge to his soul.
Not oriental mysticism, cabalistic calligraphic mystery in theological speculation, metaphysics without follow, dreams never held of, arguments with complete no answers

His answer:

"some other day". "a convenient time" "tomorrow".

But off the call of God; put it off. Turn away from Spirit's impression. Turn away wait - wait. Plenty of times. "insane"

But: TOMORROW IS TOO LATE.

The convenient answer never comes. It never does.
all that it took to destroy his soul, bleed his life.

All that it was to be. Satan's sweetest device. Enough, Adequate, Sufficient.
Drifting into eternity without God.
as from "The Desert"

(a) The old story, like in Milton's Paradise Lost. Conscience is all.
How shall we do, to damn the lives, souls of men?

(1) "No God." "Some, yes. But the fool had said so. Not all fools.

(2) "Bible not inquisit word, but" "Some, yes But still the best seller, and the more talk about it, the more sell it, want to buy it

(3) "You met Son, God. Never saw again. A man would like say 'yes'?"
yes, some. But why time mention him, do we mean to him.

(4) "I have it!" "Admit it all - God. Well. You had it before.
'no hurry, time = plenty, not tonight, tomorrow, wait...'

Oh, how it works!
This evil device, the Satanic persuasion.

- (1) Baptists, manly's daughter. "wants to see."
- (2) Children, "wants till old"
- (3) Youth, "wants till your thin feet." + not only 8th man, but 8th boy.
- (4) Merchant, womanish "wants till tomorrow"
- (5) Old eye, "wants till a light, angel, catalytic expression."

mostov...
And they it is too late. Did more difficult, misty. His wife, priestful, prayerful, and... She seemed for a living, he said

- (a) Noah, why did he not open the door? Because God shut the door.
- (b) Fossil fossils. "day" " " " ? " " " " " " " " " " "

The day of opportunity, part.

"My spirit shall not always strive with man"
"Even found no place for repentance, though sought it... tears"
"In the spirit, against Holy Spirit, an eternal sign."

Hand, hands, impossible. Paralysis of will, heart, soul, mind Blind arm. Close eye. Stop ear.
of. Find in... no eyes.

Refuse, refuse, no, no. They can not.
All men who find themselves, sometimes, hands had a last warning.

There is a time, I know not when,
a place, I know not where which marks the destiny of men to glory or despair.

There is a line by no means which crosses every path
the hidden boundary between God, patriotism and... with.

the rest for that the angels. As if the devil had with power
do not torment us beyond our time.

We pride ourselves upon our realism. "Face the facts"
Barren "The American people like to be fooled, then they will do it" But rich.
But not in religion. Cautious elsewhere <sup>never</sup> but not in religion messengers

The facts:

- (1) If we live forever, time plenty...
- (2) "a second chance in world to come - a third year, a fourth, a fifth"
- (3) If granting repentance, could make, remake, call back...

But:

- (1) The eternal fact. "It is appointed unto men once to die..."
Men dying every day saying, "We must die" To sleep is spirit to sleep in a night, to sleep in old age is to slumber during the attack.
"Prepare to meet thy God", Death is the land - Every year a summer.
Every tombstone a funeral notice. Death advances: his stride is a walk. Amidst the prison is his palace. The present is his cottage.
He sends his messengers, messengers before him.
(a) The servant, Borna, Bagdad.

(2) The second chance. Not a syllable in the Bible. "As the tree falls... his"

(3) Impossibility to call back. Close forward, never back.
Tomorrow, too late.

If you repent - you're lost.

If you succeed, you fail.

Acta 24: 24

Tomorrow is Too Late

I. If You Try, You Can't

Bind, eye, ear, hand. Paralyzed. So will, head, soul.

Acts 24:25 Tomorrow is Too Late all that it took to blanch his life, destroy his boy, wither and Nero came. Never done. Tomorrow. "manans, manans"

- (a) Conference in torment, "What shall we do?"
- "Did men to murder, blaspheme, persecute, kill." "Not enough."
- "Tell them too many hypocrites, all right as they are."
- Tell them Betty is not true.
- " " your cannot own."
- Admit it all. Ought to believe. But just if you regard.

"That is it!"

Oh, how it works - this evil device - Satan's power.

(1) It works effectively.

Do not have to persecute, murder, blaspheme. This will do the job. Just as best can be.

(2) It works <sup>miraculously</sup> with everybody.

- Baptists about murdering. "wait"
- little boy, just. "Too young?"
- youth. "Good times"
- monarch. "Blind?"
- old age. "Thus far - why stop?"

Then too late. (c) Paratroopers. 2/1/41

Tomorrow is Too Late

American people like to be realistic, "face the facts", "all the cards on the table". Especially in religion. Credulous devotion (cf. Barnum) but not in religion.

- Consider:
- (1) If we live forever in this world, plenty of time
  - (2) If there were a 4, 3, 2, 1 chance in the world to come
  - (3) If, granting repentance, we could undo, remake, what already done.

But look at them. (1) Death everywhere. Any.

(2) Not a syllable in the Bible.

(3) Impossible to call back. Clock turns, forward.

Never back. Tomorrow is too late.

I. If You Repent - You're Lost.

- (1) Time turns. All repentance is like that. To undo! To if we could!

II. If You Try - You Can't.

I. To Surrender Your Life in Special Service. Jk. 9:59-62

II. To Live Your Life in Faith Trust to Jesus. Acts 24:25

That someday, tomorrow, mercy came.

All that it took to destroy his people, with his sword & lip. Man's sin

All that it ever takes; sword, sufficient. just drift into eternity.

TOMORROW IS TOO LATE

(c) 12-11-11

Who might listen to this appeal? Out here are

1. Christian people not doing the will of God. Degrees of miserable, unhappy. Tomorrow, get right. Like an eagle in the barn yard, shut up with the chicks
2. Young people who do wrong. Nearly know it. Tomorrow they repent. Oats first.
3. Lost men who know their condition. Tomorrow I shall come to the Lord.

(a) Musicians. Mangrove.

American people like to be realistic; face the facts of life, hide nothing. Especially in religion. Cautious everywhere else (Barman, "the people like to be fooled, and I'm the one who can do it," and get rich), but not religion.

- Consider this:
1. If we lived forever in this world, plenty of time to get right
  2. If there were or fourth, a third chance in the world to come, or even a second one more, plenty of time.
  3. If, granting conveniences, reservations, we could undo what already is done, remake all.
- But will you look at the truth: Tomorrow is too late, all three.

When I have a convenient season, I will
But tomorrow is too late.

I. If You Succeed, <sup>is a real sense</sup> You Fail.

Put off tomorrow what you ought to do today; if you do it tomorrow, <sup>you have already</sup> in a high sense, you failed.

(a) Ben Victor.

At the little 9 year old girl this, G.M. gave me the name of her mother and her home address - saying "Come to visit my mother, as if you can't get her to come to L.S." What had come upon me, when it is the children who please for the first time, it won't last!

II. If You Try, <sup>is a real sense</sup> Opportunity is Passed.

(a) Ben Whaley, when I gave my life to be a preacher.

III. If You Repent, the <sup>Best</sup> Deed Cannot be Undone.

(a) The Jones twins, Deacon Phoebe. (a) Miss Jones - Will

While the Lord may be found
While he is near, do we not seek him, call upon him?

Let me show you:

Wife, wives. Tears, tears, tears. Home on the rocks.

Men. Unions. Drink. Gambling.

Fathers, mothers, aged and children.

Young people. Never get over these sins. Plastic time.

Most pitiful of all: Calloused, hardened. No to these men, women in these dens, dens, even of their fair houses, ... and.

• Jn. 8:4-7

Oh, the golden opportunities are now. The Lord is here now.

The saving of the soul before eternity.

The saving of the life before the brief years are gone.
