TRUE REPENTANCE

I The Experience of Defeat, Despair

1. a boastful, presumptuous, self-confident ruler
Matt. 16: 21-23 presumptuous, telling that he will do what is his.

26: 33-35 boastful, self-confident

2. Then this denial
crushed, shattered
that night, Friday evening, Saturday
Three years later left, leave, please fellowship
I was sickly, he left me
... a broken, cursing man, he put hope, when in 7, 19
... a broken, cursing man, he put hope, when in 7, 19
... a broken, cursing man, he put hope, when in 7, 19
... a broken, cursing man, he put hope, when in 7, 19
But now, "O wretched man that I am."

3. The depths of depravity, weakness, failure in all of us.

Job 42: 5, 6
David Ps. 51: 5
David Ps. 6: 5 uses the word, a large Ps. 13: 8-5 "wicked"
David Ps. 9: 3, 4
Paul Rom. 7: 21, 24

- 3. The great saints
  - (a) A. A. G. Gordon, just before death, asked to be left alone. Overhead confessing sin in such retractions from God except his deliverance.
  - (b) Jonathan Edwards, "Oh, the bottomless, infinite depths of wickedness under heaven, secret in my heart"
  - (c) Martin Luther, "Oh, my sin, my sin, I get in confessional cells name me sin in particular."

Truly, the statements of the depths of our sin are chiefly for the repentance, both in Scripture and in history of the church.

 Sin down - Satan down - death down - your down - let down
 Sin down - Satan down - death down - your down - let down
 But just saved,
 we have been in the world, you are
 spent in today all day
 that salvation will be for that back of death race
 that we are 7, 10, 15
