THE WEEPING CHRIST

Did he ever laugh? Must have; possessed a rare & subtle humor; but <sup>no record</sup> three times that he wept.

Mk. 14<sup>31</sup> "He shall see the city and weep over it"

Mt. 5<sup>2</sup> "... with strong crying and tears."

John 11<sup>35</sup> "He wept"

Is it a sign of weakness?

(a) I as a boy, in the meetings at church, so deeply moved, boys between the pews, no nobody could see.

(b) Big Bill McFarland, center of U. of Ky. football team, principal of U.S. speaking for Christ at a church service, apologizing for his tears.

Is it a sign of weakness?

Mother when I was converted. "I feel I will never see you again."
Father when we took him to the tomb: "I feel I will never see you again."

Simon Peter, when the Lord turned & looked upon him.
Elders of church at Ephesus, when Paul said, they see his face no more.

At the open grave of our good Lord.

At a bitter disappointment.

No - it is the mother heart,
father heart,
child's heart,
brother heart,
loving heart,
sorrowing heart
that weeps.

1. Tears for the lost. 21. 19 <sup>41</sup>

The great city of Jerusalem, the city of God, the temple - nobody was dreamed but 70 A.D. - My own home desolate

Our present city of Dallas; our America. Somehow, cannot forget Secret submarines out there in <sup>oceans</sup> ~~oceans~~ <sup>oceans</sup>

Seemingly, cannot learn, our lives, dying, spiritually <sup>condemned</sup> men when we forget God - we face the judgment of our own evil.
Nor can planes and tanks and weapons <sup>save</sup> us
(1) <sup>the more</sup> <sup>strongly</sup>, "No bomb shall ever fall on the faithful"

(1) <sup>the</sup> <sup>strongest</sup> <sup>ever</sup> <sup>is</sup>
the <sup>love</sup> <sup>of</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>cross</sup>

2. Tears of atonement. Heb. 5 I

"Why he became sin for us..."
The redemptive work of our Jesus was wrought at a terrible price. Agony Sweat drops
of blood

The mystery of the divine offering of soul, blood, life, for our sin. Unfathomable.
"Why he became sin for us..." they will be done. "Heb. 9:7" "But what will we do?"
"Why did he die?" "Why...?"
"It is finished" "Jesus has done his work."

THE TEARS OF JESUS

Did he ever laugh? But 3 different times, had he cried.
Evidenced a rare and subtle humor.

Lk. 19<sup>41</sup> "he beheld the city, and wept over it,..."

Heb. 5:7 "... with strong crying and tears."

Jn. 11<sup>35</sup> "Jesus wept."

WHO WEEPS? Is it a sign of weakness?

Big Bill McFarland, apologizing that he couldn't help crying.
of the hard, the impatient, the cold, the indifferent

1. The motherheart.
  - tears of anguish in birth, joy in presentation
  - " at our conversion
  - " when left home, in letters..
2. The fatherheart.
  - love for the best interests of his children
  - joy when they do well.
3. The humbled heart
  - (a) Peter - when he denied, and when restored
4. The sorrowed heart. Jn. 14:18.
  - in death, separation, disappointment.
  - Not, that never see them again - but lonely.

And so, THE TEARS OF JESUS.

Left Scarborough
has a sermon substituted,
on that.

Chapman
W. E. Carr, Methodist preacher, burned himself out at 32, so intense.
The thousands toward Christ he had never turned. A minister came just to see where no noble soul had yielded. The preacher, showing him the church house. "The secret of his power?"
The visitor taking the minister up into the study. "Sit down there in that chair, bury your face in your hands, and weep!" Taking him into the auditorium, stand behind the desk, bury your face in your hands, and weep!"

These are the two great boys who thought so much of me.
(They were the ones teaching me how to "Up-Up")
