

Q to 16: 22-34

SUBJECT: What can a man do
in stock, claim, prison?

W. P. M.

04/26

(6)

Acts 16:22-34

OUR LORD'S WEDNESDAY EVENING

Theme "What Shall I Do?" with the problems of persons like

This text: In stocks, chains, in the dungeons, in a box, etc.
: What can he do?

I. Pray. 16:23

(a) Palace Theatre. Missions. "Thought more to the more part."
all I can do is pray for you."
b. In it. God's answer to all our needs; directions for all our ways.

16:27-34

(a) woman, diamond bracelet, manager would sell
"I want" office and found it. Put on, took away and waited. The case, also. The response

(b) Deacons, their houses. Study of previous gifts;
member at home. Hospital, new decisions

2. Over 2 million Myrtle Beach. Fund Appeal.

II. Name 16:35

- (a) street car, went up, rem. Cudretu + Crippled by, not by name.
- "How do you get, App?" My Daddy says the girls are like girls, I say.
- (b) poem "my Hands and Feet"

III. Poem 16:37 to 4th teaching

- "Dear Christ" no words. Amalgam, remarkable aspects
  - 1. visit you. right of your way.
  - 6. children for us. . . . .
- right of your way.
- But what you mean by Galilee is. There is?

- 2. 4,000 years ago. To this day. yet
- (1) "The last years, taken away." 1:31
- (2) "The day now, yet still" 13:15

-
- afford
- 1. not well. Cause, that, may be ready
  - 2. know then . . .
  - 3. successful, looks in heart
  - 4. for the last
  - 5. 7 months for now, just that

4/26

my Hands and my Feet

If my load should lead to complaining
Lord, show me thy hands
Thy nail-pierced hands
Thy cross-torn hands
Lord, show me thy hands.

O Christ, if ever my foot steps should falter,
and be prepared for retreat,
If testing a trial come
in my journey,

Lord, show me thy feet
Thy bleeding feet
Thy nail-pierced feet
O Lord, show me thy feet.

and God, when I am sorely wounded
with the battle on foot
of the day,
and I complain of my suffering,
God, let me hear thee say,
"Behold, my side;
my spear - pierced side;
my side that was wounded for thee"

my God, dare I show thee
my hands - or my feet?