John 16:4

A DAY OF NATIONAL REMEMBRANCE

"... that ye may remember"

So prone to forget. God's anxiety...

(1) Ex. 12:26 "... when your children .. what mean ye...?"

(2) Joshua 4:20? "... what mean these stones?"

(3) I Sam. 7:12

All the old time ye would know

"Here" raise mine Ebenezer Hither by the help of your arm, & here by the good pleasure
of your hand at home.

(4) Isa. 51:1, 2.

I. Our Humble Beginnings.

The story of the Holy Fathers.

II. The Sacrifice of Others.

Names of employees killed.

They will grow not old
As not that are best years old.
Age will not weary them
Nor the years weary them.
at the going down of the sun
and in the morning
we will remember them.

y. last Sunday, quietly at the close of the service. The long roll... forget?

The Saviour of our souls.

...in remembrance of us."

(a) Jesus' mortality and revival. Told the story, his death & death. The train carrying the body to Illinois. Not in town in grief. A woman weeping, bleeding, with her child, along the route. Lipped him up when she wept when he wept us. Said: "Take a long look, long look. Take a long look. A look for you."
