

NOTICE!
Joan Almon

A third edition of the Wynstones books for kindergarten teachers and parents is now being printed. Edited by Margret Meyerkort and Jennifer Aulie, the set again includes six volumes: Autumn, Winter, Spring, Summer, Gateways and Spindrift.

They have beautiful, four color covers painted by David Newbatt. The seasonal covers each depict different workmen. Each volume has been enlarged and the multicultural nature of the collection is quite evident now. There is also more emphasis on the work aspect in the choice of songs, stories and verses. Jennifer Aulie's article on the mood of the fifth is used as an introduction in each volume, and each includes a list of recommended books.

For those who have never had this collection, you are in for a treat. This is a rich resource for anyone working with young children. For those who have used the books for years, you will be torn between honoring your old friends, probably battered and falling apart by now, or replacing them with these beautiful new volumes.

The books will be available soon, either directly from Wynstones School or through the Rudolf Steiner College Bookstore, 9200 Fair Oaks Blvd., Fair Oaks, CA 95628, Tel. (916) 961-8729, Fax (916) 961-3032. J.A.
