

WEB SEMINAR SERIES

Washington Legal Foundation

“Trial Lawyers’ Enron”:

Will Indictments & Investigations Expose Bill Lerach and Milberg Weiss to Shareholder Lawsuits?

FEATURING:

TERRY F. LENZNER, ESQ.

Chairman

Investigative Group International

Former Federal Prosecutor, S.D. of New York

PAUL D. KAMENAR

Senior Executive Counsel

Washington Legal Foundation

LIVE WEBCAST:

Thursday, August 25, 2005

10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. EST

<http://www.wlf.org>

Event Highlights:

- What are the latest developments in the criminal probe of the Milberg Weiss law firm?
- What laws and legal theories are the federal government relying on?
- What legal strategies might be available to shareholders and other parties affected by the class action lawsuits under investigation?
- Are federal courts and the SEC properly policing abuses in private securities class action litigation?

WLF

Washington Legal Foundation

Advocate for freedom and justice®
2009 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036
202.588.0302

WLF's Web Seminar Series, initiated in March 2005, presents viewers with live webcast analysis and commentary by noted legal experts on timely developments in law and public policy. These hour-long presentations will also be conveniently archived and available on WLF's website, www.wlf.org.