CORPORATE COMPLIANCE EXPERT JOINS WLF ADVISORY BOARD

The Washington Legal Foundation (WLF) and the Chairman of its Legal Policy Advisory Board, former U.S. Attorney General Dick Thornburgh, are pleased to announce that Paul Clinton Harris, Sr. of Ernst & Young LLP has joined WLF's Board.

Mr. Harris is a senior manager in Ernst & Young's Fraud Investigation & Dispute Services practice and is a leader of the firm's Corporate Compliance Advisory Services group. Prior to joining Ernst & Young in 2008, Mr. Harris was a partner at Shook, Hardy & Bacon LLP, in the Government Enforcement and Corporate Compliance practice group. He also previously served as Senior Counsel and Director of Enterprise Compliance at Raytheon Company, where he reported directly to the general counsel. Mr. Harris also has served as Deputy Assistant Attorney General of the Civil Division at the U.S. Department of Justice, was elected to represent Virginia's Fifty-Eighth House District for two terms in the Virginia General Assembly, and was a Captain (Military Intelligence) in the U.S. Army.

"Paul's remarkable range of private and public service experience will make him an incredible asset to WLF's public interest mission," said WLF Chairman and General Counsel Daniel J. Popeo. "He has been active with WLF's Legal Studies Division for several years, and has distinguished himself as one of our leading pro bono allies on corporate compliance and the protection of businesses' civil liberties," Popeo added.

Mr. Harris has spoken at WLF Web Seminar programs and has participated in several WLF publications, most recently a CONVERSATIONS WITH paper project with Raytheon General Counsel Jay Stephens and WLF Advisory Board Chairman Thornburgh.

WLF's Legal Policy Advisory Board includes over fifty distinguished professionals from government and the legal, academic, and public policy communities. For further information, contact WLF Legal Studies Division Chief Counsel Glenn Lammi, (202) 588-0302.
