

WEB SEMINAR SERIES

Washington Legal Foundation

UNCIVIL LITIGATION: Trends in Lawyer Misconduct and How Courts are Responding

FEATURING:

PROF. MICHAEL I. KRAUSS

George Mason University
School of Law

DAMON W.D. WRIGHT

Venable LLP

LIVE WEBCAST:

Friday, March 28, 2008

10:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. EST

<http://www.wlf.org>

Event Highlights:

- Underlying causes of apparent increase in litigation-related attorney misconduct.
- Judicial authority to sanction attorney misconduct and motivations for judges' use of sanctions.
- Recent examples of judicially-imposed sanctions in context of discovery and other aspects of litigation.
- Lessons that can be learned and applied from recent judicial actions.

Interact with our speakers by submitting your questions in advance to *interactive@wlf.org

Washington Legal Foundation

Advocate for freedom and justice®
2009 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20036
202.588.0302

WLF's Web Seminar Series presents viewers with live webcast analysis and commentary by noted legal experts on timely developments in law and public policy. These hour-long presentations will also be conveniently archived and available on WLF's website, www.wlf.org.