WLF Welcomes Two Corporate General Counsel & A State Attorney-General to Its Advisory Board

“We are honored that Larry, Jay, and Attorney-General Fox have agreed to join our Legal Policy Advisory Board.”

—Constance Claffey Larcher, WLF President and CEO

WASHINGTON, DC—The Washington Legal Foundation (WLF) and the Chairman of its Legal Policy Advisory Board, the Honorable Dick Thornburgh, are pleased to announce that Pepsico General Counsel Larry D. Thompson, Raytheon Company General Counsel Jay B. Stephens, and Montana Attorney-General Tim Fox have joined WLF’s Board.

Larry Thompson manages Pepsico’s worldwide legal issues and corporate compliance, as well as government affairs and public policy for the company and its 22 brands. Mr. Thompson was previously Deputy Attorney-General of the United States and U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia.

Jay Stephens provides leadership for Raytheon’s legal and regulatory affairs, ethics and compliance programs, and corporate governance activities. Mr. Stephens was previously Associate Attorney-General of the United States, U.S. Attorney for the District of Columbia, and Deputy Counsel to President Ronald Reagan.

Attorney-General Tim Fox was elected Montana’s twenty-fourth attorney-general in 2012. Prior to his election, Mr. Fox served Montana in the state’s Department of Environmental Quality. He previously served as Legal Counsel to a Helena-based bank and practiced complex litigation in private law firms.

Upon learning that these distinguished gentlemen had agreed to join its Legal Policy Advisory Board, WLF issued the following statement by President and CEO Constance Claffey Larcher:

“We are honored that Larry, Jay, and Attorney-General Fox have agreed to join our Legal Policy Advisory Board. WLF has been fortunate to feature both Jay’s and Larry’s expertise over the past two decades on numerous occasions through our educational publications and programs, and we look forward to doing the same with Attorney-General Tim Fox.”

WLF’s Legal Policy Advisory Board consists of over forty distinguished professionals from the government, corporate, academic, and public policy legal communities.

WLF is a public interest law firm and policy center that keeps free enterprise free by litigating, publishing, and putting on programs to bring its advocacy to courts, regulatory agencies, and the public arena.
