General Counsel, Legal Scholar, and Two Noted Practitioners Join WLF Legal Policy Advisory Board

WASHINGTON, DC—Washington Legal Foundation (WLF) and the Chairman of its Legal Policy Advisory Board, Jay B. Stephens, are pleased to announce that R. Hewitt Pate, Vice President and General Counsel of Chevron Corporation, Professor Stephen M. Bainbridge of the UCLA School of Law, Katharine R. Latimer of Hollingsworth LLP, and Allyson N. Ho of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP have joined WLF's Board.

Mr. Pate joined Chevron as Vice President and General Counsel in 2009. As Chevron's chief legal officer, he directs the company's worldwide legal affairs and serves on the company's Executive Committee. He previously chaired the Global Competition practice at the law firm Hunton & Williams LLP, served as Assistant Attorney General for the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice, and was a law clerk to Supreme Court Justices Anthony M. Kennedy and Lewis F. Powell Jr.

Professor Bainbridge is the William D. Warren Distinguished Professor of Law at UCLA, where he teaches Business Associations as well as Mergers and Acquisitions. He is a prolific scholar who has authored over 90 law review articles and casebooks, and he edits the award-winning blog "ProfessorBainbridge.com."

Ms. Latimer is a Partner with Hollingsworth LLP, where her complex litigation practice emphasizes trials and appeals in the defense of pharmaceutical and medical-device product-liability and toxic-tort claims. She has extensive experience with presenting and challenging expert scientific testimony.

Ms. Ho is a Partner in the Dallas office of Morgan Lewis & Bockius LLP and co-chair of its appellate practice. She previously clerked for U.S. Supreme Court Justice Sandra Day O'Connor and served as a special assistant to President George W. Bush and counselor to the Attorney General of the United States.

"We are honored that Hew, Steve, Kate, and Allyson have joined our Advisory Board," said WLF President and CEO Constance Larcher. "WLF has been fortunate to feature each of these professionals' expertise over the past decade as authors of our publications and speakers at our programs, and we look forward to further engaging them in our critical public interest law work."

WLF's Legal Policy Advisory Board includes over 45 distinguished professionals from the government and the legal, academic, and public policy communities.
