FROM KATE RILEY: https://www.NicheRaiders.com

FONTS USED IN TEMPLATES:

When it comes to the fonts we use throughout our planners, and journals, we stick with freely available, commercial-use fonts. That way you don't have to worry about paying anything more to make sure the journals look as beautiful as we intended them to be.

Listed below are the top commercial use fonts we regularly use within our journals. Do yourself a favor and download and install all the following fonts so that the templates maintain the look & feel they're designed to once you open them.

FONT LIST FOR THIS DESIGN:

Headlines:

https://www.dafont.com/modern-sans.font

Italic / Cursive Headlines:

https://www.dafont.com/clarissa-2.font

Body Font:

https://www.fontsquirrel.com/fonts/montserrat (original)

If you have any questions about your license rights, please contact the developer, Kate Riley, at https://www.MainstreamVentures.com

Looking for more printable packages or complete done-for-you 100 & 150 page journals, planners and other low content books that you can publish instantly?

Visit http://www.ProfitableJournals.com

Yours in success,

WRITER'S HUSTLE