This Kids' Giving Book is designed to help you create a meaningful family giving tradition while encouraging children to connect the dots between their life and God's heart for the most vulnerable. Each page is filled with activities, Scripture, thought-provoking ideas, and gifts that provide tangible ways to live generously and love others as we celebrate Jesus—the greatest gift of all! Giving options represent World Vision projects and suggested donation amounts are based on surveys in the countries where we serve. Your donation will be used to provide assistance where it's needed most within the gift category in which it appears at worldvisiongifts.org. For example, when you give an animal gift, a portion of the gift may also help provide water sources, farming assistance, hunger relief, and other related essentials.

giving game

Here's a game to play with your whole family. Each person answers every question and then the players vote for the best answer.

- 1 Name a gift you got that you were grateful for. What made it special?
- 2 Who gives you the best presents? What makes those gifts great?
- 3 What's the best gift you've ever given someone? What made it special?
- 4 Have you ever given something to someone you didn't know (or didn't know well)? What did that feel like?
- 5 Name the best thing you've gotten from every person in the room. (HINT: It doesn't have to be a physical thing.)

You don't need to add up your scores. With this game, everybody wins!

generosity cards

Be generous to someone in need

Ask a grown-up if they will help you volunteer one night at a local soup kitchen. Some churches offer meals for people who are facing hard times.

Jesus loves it when we serve one another, and generosity cards give you ideas to do that! Cut out the cards and talk with your family about how you can do the activities. Read the verses on the back—and try to memorize them!

Be generous to a neighbor

Give a neighbor a homemade gift certificate for mowing their lawn or weeding their garden. Or just bring a plate of homemade cookies!

Be generous to your family

Next time you get mad at someone you live with, try not to yell at them or stay angry. See if you can forgive from your heart. Ask Jesus to help you.

Bible quiz

First, read Matthew 14:13-21. You can ask a grown-up to help you find it in the Bible. Then take the quiz.

1. Where was Jesus at the beginning of this story?
2. What did Jesus do for people BEFORE he fed them?
3. How many loaves of bread did the disciples have?
4. How many fish did the disciples have?
5. How many men did Jesus feed (not counting women and children)?
6. How many baskets of food were left after the people were full?

memory verse cards

Memorizing Bible verses about how much God wants us to be generous can help remind us to be generous toward others throughout the day.

You should feed those who are hungry. You should take care of the needs of those who are troubled. Then your light will shine in the darkness. And you will be bright like sunshine at noon.

—Isaiah 58:10

When you are angry, do not sin. And do not go on being angry all day.

—Ephesians 4:26

“Love your neighbor as you love yourself.”

—Matthew 19:19
